

HEAD COACH VACANCY

Clydebank Rugby Football Club are proud to be offering a terrific opportunity for an ambitious and capable Coach to lead our Senior Ladies section.

Clydebank Ladies Rugby Football Club are a recently established, progressive and inclusive community rugby club based in the West of Glasgow, which was established in 2020.

After a fantastic season in 2021/2022 where the team took part in multiple development tournaments, we are looking to appoint a new Head Coach for the Ladies section to build on the foundations of last season and to take the club forward.

Head Coach – Key Functions:

- To manage and oversee the coaching and playing program of Clydebank Ladies Rugby.
- Manage and promote player recruitment where and when required.
- Effectively and enthusiastically plan the schedule and content for training and matches.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Set targets – agree challenging but sensible and achievable targets.
- Agree a merit based and transparent selection policy with the management team.
- Create and execute training sessions which are active and relevant to the team goals, players abilities, time of season and team performance.
- Ensure SCRUMS is maintained and updated in a timely manner, when required by the SRU.

Skills & Abilities:

- You will have completed the SRU 'Coaching Essentials' qualification or UKCC Level 1 or equivalent.
- Ability to plan, report effectively and prioritise workload.

Time commitment will include regular weekly training sessions on a Tuesday and Thursday evening (7pm) and match days, Sundays.

This role may suit an experienced former player or up and coming coach with the enthusiasm to take a club and group of players with real potential forward.

Terms:

This is a volunteer's role, however reasonable expenses and coaching development costs will be included.

If you have the necessary qualities we are looking for, please forward your CV together with a letter of interest to: Clydebank Rugby Club's Chairman, Ross McCombe at mccombe.ross@gmail.com or Club Captain Alisdair Smart at alisdair_s@live.co.uk
